

ADDICTION & FAITH CONFERENCE

BREAKOUT SESSION

Family Crisis in the Church Part II (advanced training)

Micheal Borowiak, MSW, LICSW

This session will apply the information presented in Part I. Participants must have participated in Part I (Those who attended Part I at the first Addiction & Faith Conference 2018 could attend part II).

- Participants learn to apply through role play, practice and discussion with real life examples, skills and knowledge from Part I.

Michael has been in private practice since 1997, working with couples, families and children his entire career. He specializes in helping individuals and families out of stressful and challenging dynamics, such as divorce, trauma and substance use disorder. He has extensive experience in organizing and facilitating interventions, working as a chemical health social worker and has previous experience as coordinator of Hopkins School District's Drug Free Community Coalition. He and his team currently work with families who have a family member in treatment.
