OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES

These events are presented for your enjoyment, but also as examples of the kinds of ministries and activities that could be done in any congregation and would appeal to those in recovery from addiction.

12-STEP MEETINGS

12-Step meetings have been found to be the most effective means of recovering from addiction.

OPEN MEETING

Open to the public. Anyone is welcome to come and experience a 12-Step Meeting whether you are in recovery or not. Come and just listen or participate. Open meetings are for people recovering from any type of addiction.

DROP-IN MEETING

Attendees are welcome to arrive and depart any time they like.

CLOSED MEETING

For any person anywhere who has or thinks they may have a desire to stop drinking. One need not have attended any meetings previously to attend a 'Closed' meeting.

CLERGY ONLY MEETING

For clergy only.

AL-ANON MEETING

For people who are worried about someone with a drinking problem. Its purpose is to help families and friends of alcoholics find hope and encouragement to live joyful, serene lives. It is a spiritually based organization that helps the families and friends of alcoholics connect and support each other through meetings, information, and shared experiences and find hope and encouragement to live joyful, serene lives.

Although people commonly turn to Al-Anon for help in stopping another's drinking, the organization recognizes that the friends and families of alcoholics are often traumatized themselves and in need of emotional support and understanding.

CONSCIOUS CONTACT SPIRITUAL DRUMMING

Modeled after a 12-Step meeting but with the focus on spirituality, prayer and meditation. The meetings begin with sharing on the topic of spiritual growth and concludes with prayer and meditation through drumming. Come and listen, come and drum. Drumming has proven to have therapeutic effects on the brain.

NARCAN TRAINING

Thursday, 3-6 p.m.

by Randy Anderson, from Bold North Recovery and Consulting

Everyone should learn how to recognize and reverse an opioid overdose.

- What Naloxone (Narcan) is
- How it works when administered
- How to recognize the signs of an opioid overdose
- When to give naloxone

THERAPEUTIC CHAIR MASSAGE

Thursday, 3-6 p.m.

By Carmen Nunez or Jawara Morris

Relax your mind, body and spirit with a 30-minute chair massage. During these sessions, the therapist kneads the shoulders, back, and neck through the client's clothing to help alleviate tension and stress.

30 minutes for $30 fee

to help someone struggling with these issues are often no farther away than the person sitting next to us in a worship service. People's lives are silently unraveling and they need us to reach out with an open heart. This interactive workshop describes the Faith Partners' evidence-based model of congregational readiness and capacity-building that moves faith leaders from rare conversations about behavioral health to active involvement in community prevention and recovery support activities. Participants will receive tools, strategies, and a spiritual basis to initiate an effective, sustainable ministry in their congregational communities.

Breaking Apart Drug Related Stigma Rev. Erica Poellot, Director of Faith and Community Partnerships - Faith in Harm Reduction

Stigma permeates the lives of people who use drugs, people who suffer from Substance Use Disorder and the family members of those who suffer from Substance Use Disorder. Stigma prevents people from seeking the help they need and it reduces quality of care. This panel will explore the impacts of stigma from the perspectives of the individual, the family member, community and church. Ways to break down stigma will also be explored.

Presenters : Alexis Pleus, Executive Director of Truth Pharm, Jess Tilley, Director, HRH 413, co-founder Harm Reduction Works, and New England Users Union, facilitated/moderated by Rev Michelle Mathis, Executive Director, Olive Branch Ministry and Erica Poellot, Director, Faith in Harm Reduction and Minister of Harm Reduction, National UCC.

Eating Disorders and Substance Use Populations

Jennifer McAdams, MA, LCPC, CEDS-S, Senior Clinical Director of Eating Disorder Services
Leah Young, LCPC, Clinical Manager, Addiction Recovery Comprehensive Help

For a long time Eating and Substance Use Disorders were treated separately or in succession. We have learned that this is not an effective path to recovery. This presentation will provide a more thorough understanding of these disorders, how they interact, and how effectively treating them is imperative.

- Discuss the interplay, similarities, and differences between Eating Disorders and Substance Abuse Disorders.
- Describe treatment approaches with emphasis on Integrated Treatment.
- Review the NIDA guidelines for effective treatment.
- Outline how to utilize a treatment team in treatment throughout levels of care.

Faith in Harm Reduction

Rev. Erica Poellot, Director of Faith and Community Partnerships - Faith in Harm Reduction

"Harm reduction is holy, faith-full resistance, rooted in love and unapologetically insistent on justice. It is the expression of radical welcome, the welcoming of all stories and paths. Harm reduction calls people by name, and attends to and cherishes the particularities. It is a hospitality that seeks people out, meets them where they are and invites them into loving community. Harm reduction is love that stands with people, in awe of the hardships they carry and without judgment for how they get through."

Harm Reduction is an approach to substance use that centers the dignity and health of people who use drugs. It meets people where they are at and supports them in keeping themselves as safe, healthy, and connected as possible. Harm Reduction understands that we must acknowledge the vulnerabilities of people who are most susceptible to drug related harm, and we must center those same people at the helm of the response.

Join us as we examine the principles of harm reduction and their spiritual impact. Together we will illustrate the gospel of harm reduction, the power of language in shaping liberation, make connections with harm reduction movements for social, racial, and economic justice, and explore opportunities for faith communities to co-create healing with people who use drugs.

Rev Michelle Mathis, Executive Director, Olive Branch Ministry, Erica Poellot, Director, Faith in Harm Reduction and Minister of Harm Reduction, National UCC.

Making Matthew 25 Relevant in your Community

Rev. Joy Gonnerman, Certified Prevention Specialist, International Gaming Disorder Specialist

- Rosecrance Jackson Centers, Sioux City, Iowa
Substance Use Disorder and process disorders are issues of community health. We know that 90% of adults with substance use disorder started using in their teens so the youth around us need our help. Addiction is not a moral failing but rather a disease of the brain so our concern is not one of morality but of brain health. We also know that there are factors that put a young person at greater risk for substance use disorder. Communities of faith are ideally situated for providing protective factors for individuals, communities and systems all by holding Matthew 25 as our guide. How better for communities gathered in faith to reach out to neighbors? There is both a science and a passion for this work. Expect to learn of the continuum of care, the cycle of addiction, risk factors and protective factors that you can use as individuals and as faith leaders

Youth & Family

Rev. Dr. Dan Gibson, Primary Counselor, Teen Program, Thelma McMillen Recovery Center

The panel will include family members who have had one or more family member who struggled from addiction. The panel will discuss what it was like; what happened; and what it's like now; and how they came out on the other side.

WELCOME

TO THE 2021 ADDICTION AND FAITH CONFERENCE

PURPOSE

With the growing concern over the devastation of all forms of addiction, including the ever-increasing opioid crisis, the Center of Addiction & Faith presents this conference on addiction and faith to raise awareness of the terrible addiction problem we face and how the church and people of faith can help to address it.

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

- Link congregations and congregation leaders with information and resources that can help them fight addiction in their local congregations and communities.
- Discover proven, innovative and creative ways colleagues are successfully ministering to those addicted and their loved ones.
- Increase knowledge and learn new ways to create healing ministries for the benefit of the church, the communities we serve, and to humankind.

CENTER OF ADDICTION & FAITH

This conference is hosted by the Center of Addiction & Faith (CAF). The CAF works to awaken faith communities to be more fully places of welcome and healing for persons with addiction and those who love them. We are a cross-cultural, inter-faith network sought out and supported by faith communities, mental health and addiction experts, religiously-inclined people who seek recovery from addiction, and change agents, including legislators and philanthropists. Our vision is a world of human and institutional flourishing that inches closer toward grace and community, away from the brokenness and isolation imposed by addiction and exacerbated by uninformed theology and scapegoat politics. In other words, our vision is: Faith, Science, Justice, Compassion.

Thank you to a special partner, Rev. Jan M. Brown and SpiritWorks Foundation, for their help and contributions to the fulfillment of the conference this year.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Collaborative Faith Community Model- Changing the Story

Ms. Vicki Elliott, Executive Director - Mental Health Connect

How can we provide mental health preventative care? How can we change the story around mental health and substance use? How can we let people know we care and will walk with them? How can we work together, share ideas and grow? Mental Health Connect is a non-profit collaborative model for faith communities, working together to support all people on their journey in life. I'll talk about how MHC began, what the goals are, how we bring people together, the critical systems in place, how we're making progress and reaching people right where they're at.

Creating a Recovery Ready Church

Rev. Jan Brown, Founding/Executive Director - SpiritWorks

Recovery Ready Churches

Within our churches there are individuals and families who are suffering with addiction. We know that

- It often hides them from the church's view.
- It is a multigenerational disease.
- It is minimized within the family system.
- It has a long term devastating impact on family members, especially the children.
- It isolates its victims from the Body of Christ.

Be part of the conversation as we explore what it means to be a Recovery Ready Church, one which understands overdose, addiction, and recovery and its impact on individuals, families, and churches. And one which is prepared to respond as a "Safe Haven".

The Vision - A Safe Haven is a faith community where all members of a family affected by addiction, including the children, know there are knowledgeable and caring clergy and lay leaders who:

- Understand what they are experiencing
- Care about them and are available to them
- Help them find emotional and physical safety and
- Support their healing and spiritual growth.

Grief Relief-Roadmap to Restoration

Ms. Kelli Nielsen, Founder - The Grief Guru

Learn the framework for recovering from grief and learn to love your life again. Healing isn't instant, and it isn't easy, but it possible and it is worth it. Kelli shares her personal journey of dealing with grief after losing her mother to suicide and her son to an accidental overdose. She also shares the 5 step process she created through study and prayer that helped heal her heart and allow her the room to design a life she truly loves. The Grief Relief process is helping people find hope and healing and is built on practical tools and Biblical principles

How Churches can Seek Healing and Justice in Ending the War on Drugs

Rev. Alexander Sharp, Executive Director - Clergy for a New Drug Policy

The so-called War on Drugs is the longest war in the history of our nation. This Drug War is theologically and morally wrong. It calls for punishment in the form of jail and prison for individuals using drugs, including those who are addicted. It continues to devastate especially communities of color. Churches have an obligation to seek healing rather than incarceration in response to drug use, and to bring this tragic war to an end. This workshop will make clear why it is our responsibility to end the War on Drugs, identify the targets of advocacy toward this end, and describe the ways in which you can bring forth voices for justice within your congregation.

Co-Dependence? Decoding the Family System Dynamics of Addiction

Mr. Michael Borowiak, MSW, LICSW - Traverse Counseling & Consulting Callie Albaugh, MA, LMFT

Decoding the Family System Dynamics of Addiction. There is a lot more going on in the dynamics of a family in which substance use is present than can be articulated with the term 'codependence'. The experienced therapists at Traverse Counseling & Consulting will help to explore the deeper mysteries of the family patters and dysfunction within these family systems and describing the role that substance use plays within the family system.

Core Competencies for Addiction Pastoral Care

Rev. Jan Brown, Founding/Executive Director - Spiritworks

Recent events (COVID-19, rising fatal overdoses, domestic violence, increase in alcohol-related deaths) indicate and demonstrate a need for competency across all orders of church ministry on addiction and other substance related problems. As a response, an updated version of the Core Competencies for Clergy and Pastoral Leaders in Addressing Alcohol and Substance Misuse was developed and is now in use in seminary curriculum and across The Episcopal Church (TEC). The core competencies provide a specific guide to the basic knowledge, attitudes, and skills essential to the ability of clergy and pastoral leaders to meet the needs of persons with alcohol or drug related problems and their families. These core competencies provide a general framework and have application to diverse pastoral situations. They are modeled after the Core Competencies for Clergy and Other Pastoral Ministers in Addressing Alcohol and Drug Dependence and the Impact On Family Members and include updated information specific to opioids, children and families, impairment and recovery pathways. This workshop will provide an overview of the core competencies with a discussion of specific opportunities to gain the necessary skills, knowledge and attitudes required to equip clergy and pastoral leaders.

How to Develop an Effective Addiction Ministry Team

Mr. Drew Brooks, Executive Director - Faith Partners, Inc.

Many of us have witnessed how addiction has destroyed families and communities - a needed response was magnified with the uncertainty and isolation of the pandemic. The opportunity

KEYNOTE & PLENARY SPEAKERS

TIMOTHY MCMAHAN KING

THURSDAY: "Addiction Nation"

Timothy McMahan King, author of Addiction Nation: What the Opioid Crisis Says About Us. Tim is owner of Vagabond Strategies, a digital solutions marketing agency. He has worked as a community organizer in Chicago, chief strategy officer with the monthly magazine Sojourners and consultant for the Center for Action and Contemplation.

THE REV. JAN M. BROWN

FRIDAY: "The Varieties of Recovery Experience"

The Rev. Jan M. Brown, founder/executive director of SpiritWorks Foundation. An ordained deacon in the Episcopal Church, Jan serves at Bruton Parish in Williamsburg, Virginia and as archdeacon in the diocese of Southern Virginia. Jan holds a Bachelor of Arts in psychology from the College of William & Mary. She is an international scholar on addiction studies and certified as a peer recovery support specialist and a recovery coach professional.

D. RICHARD WRIGHT

Plenary Session #1: "A Pastoral Approach to Native American Ministry."

I present the philosophy laws of Kindness, Sharing, Honesty and Strength as virtues. I share the emotional journey of American Indian people from all across the United States as they turned to God and surrendered themselves to spirituality teachings. It has taken me 25 years, of notes and journaling to reservations and major cities, to listen to the spirit of thousands of men and women experiencing drug and alcohol addiction.

REV. KAL WILLIAM RISSMAN

Plenary Session #2: "Guilt & Shame"

Rev. Rissman will explain the difference between guilt and shame, demonstrate how guilt and shame drive addiction, reveal the cure for both guilt and shame and describe how the Christian Church can bring healing from these things.

SPECIAL GUEST STORYTELLER

THE REV. KURT P. KALLAND

Pastor Kalland has served as an associate pastor at Mount Olivet Lutheran Church since 1992. Pastor Kalland is the Pastoral Adviser to the Pastoral Care Team and is happy to be known as the "Monsignor" of the Mount Olivet Motorheads group. He has been happily married to his wife, Dawn, for over 30 years, (they met at Cathedral of the Pines), and blessed with two exceptional daughters, as well as a son-in-law. Pastor Kalland remains active in the recovery community. In his free time, he enjoys cleaning automobiles, humor, shooting sports, playing outside and his work as a volunteer Chaplain for the Edina Police Department.

CAF HOSPITALITY ROOM

Hospitality is provided by the Center of Addiction & Faith in Cabana Room 115. Hospitality is offered from 3 to 6 P.M. and 9:15- 10:00 on Thursday. Stop in, meet some members, and pick up a brochure. Complimentary refreshments will be available.

We look forward to meeting you!

PHOTOGRAPHS & VIDEO TAPING

Typically, photographs are taken at a conference like this for education and promotional materials. However, as we are sensitive to the fact there is still too much stigma associated with addiction, we have decided we will not take photographs. Please be aware that all events in the ballroom are being video taped. We ask that if you take photos, please be aware of others in your pictures and be mindful where you may post them. Thank you.

A NOTE ON WORSHIP

A liturgical recovery worship service with Holy Communion will follow the general session on Thursday. An evening devotional worship will be held on Friday evening. Worship with Holy Communion will be celebrated on Saturday morning at the end of the conference. All services are designed to be inclusive and ecumenical. All are welcome to these services and all are welcome to receive Communion.
