

2021 Addiction & Faith Conference COVID-19 Safety Protocols

Center for Addiction & Faith is currently planning for an in-person conference this year. We are working with the conference facilities on safety protocols and will continue to monitor recommendations from the CDC and WHO. Please use care when booking travel arrangements: Center for Addiction & Faith is not responsible for airfare or other travel reimbursements should public health guidelines require cancellation of the in-person conference.

By attending the Addiction & Faith Conference, you agree to abide by and engage in certain health-and-safety-beneficial conduct. This may include, but is not limited to wearing a mask at all times in public areas, engaging in appropriate physical distancing and not attending the event if you are ill or have been recently exposed to COVID-19.

Masks

Cotton, reusable masks will be provided.
You may also bring your own mask.

Hand Sanitizer

Hand sanitizer stations will be positioned throughout the meeting space.

Meeting Space

Responsible F&B/Seating/Barriers for meeting spaces
Appropriate signage/floor decals to reinforce spatial distancing and other safety reminders may be displayed throughout the space.

Policies will be adjusted and updated regularly. A formal policy will be shared closer to the conference.
