

ADDICTION & FAITH CONFERENCE

BREAKOUT SESSION

The Recovery Ready Church

Deacon Priscilla D. Wodehouse

This workshop will focus on the specific steps parishes and dioceses can take to become a recovery ready, safe place friends and relatives of the addicted to find help. The 8-10 Steps the Recovery Commission of Western North Carolina identified to begin a thriving recovery program in a church will be presented. The booklet, Close to Home, written by this Commission will be available for reprint with suggestions to adapt statistics necessary for specific local parishes and dioceses.

Priscilla Wodehouse is a graduate of Briarcliff College and New York School of Design. She is a teacher, designer, entrepreneur, buyer, ordained Episcopal Deacon, a member of the Board of RMEC, a past chairman of the Recovery Commission of the Diocese of Western North Carolina and an alcoholic in long term Recovery. She is on Staff at Christ Episcopal Church, Ponte Vedra, Beach, Florida.